COVID-19 Update: Counting Our Blessings

This year has undeniably been challenging. As the pandemic has stretched on, we've all had days of exhaustion, worry, and uncertainty.

This has been true at home and here at Fort Bend Seniors. Exhaustion – from mornings unloading thousands of meals to ensure our seniors receive the nutrition they need. Worries of exposure – leading us to adjust our entire operation by delivering only once a week, wearing masks and social distancing from the seniors we love to ensure their safety and that of our staff. Uncertainty – amid cancelled fundraisers, concerns of raising enough funds to ensure no eligible senior is turned away.

And yet, I'm overwhelmed with gratitude when I take the time to pause and count our many blessings... read more
