

Weathering the Storm Together

When I moved to Texas from Missouri, I thought I had said farewell to the ice and frigid temperatures. While the winter storm Uri proved me wrong, it also proved that Texans are resilient, resourceful, and above all kind. With our staff, volunteers, and seniors, this was especially true. Before we even adjusted deliveries seniors called, worried about our drivers to say, "Don't deliver my meals, I'll be fine!"...read more.
